U. S. Naval Intelligence School
U. S. Naval Receiving Station
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Captain Layton:

Your letter of 22 August 1958 to the Director of Training, Central Intelligence Agency, has been forwarded to me and I am happy to report that I will be able to speak to graduating class 1/58 of the integrated course in Air Intelligence, Photographic Intelligence and Radar Target Analysis.

I have selected the "Development of Naval Photographic Intelligence" as my subject for the occasion and my remarks will be directed generally at the historical background of Navy World War II experience in the development of photographic intelligence and postwar development of Naval P. I. equipment and techniques.

Please forward any details concerning the graduation schedule directly to me. I look forward to the pleasure of seeing you and the members of your staff again very soon.

Very truly yours,

Arthur C. Lundahl
